Ben Bella Cracks Down on Foes

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

by Larry Nothenberg

President Ben Bella's order has begun to crack down on the anti-government demonstrations in the Algiers area killing the life centers.

In a similar action, he is sending the president dismissed and sentenced to death in Algeria's constitution of the 11th military region.

El Badi took over in one tenor strategy of an estimated 5000 people.

The demonstration was led by MRE Chairman Hocine Ait Ahmed, a former vice premier who broke with Ben Bella last month.

The rally caught government officials by surprise. The area set up roadblocks and warred soldiers to men them. But no deaths or injuries were reported.

NATIONAL - by Howard Lederman

Recently President Kennedy announced he would like to quit, forced with Russia to do several space efforts. I think that is really good because we are saving time and money and help world peace efforts. But, there is little chance that it will happen in the near future.

I am for and against the space program spending money for our space program. I think getting to the moon would help our people and help us get more scientific knowledge but it is not worth all the money we pay into it. The money spent on space could be put to better use here on earth.

Tank Route Closes the Parkway
Moving experts were stopped Monday on how to move two oxygen tanks to Lutheran General Hospital for the last 45 miles from York, Pa.

The highway officials reject the idea of having them go on the highway for fear they would get stuck under a bridge.

Officials strongly think that the tanks should have been shipped by rail road, but they are so large they would not fit on railroad structures.

The Borg-Warner Corp. which manufactured the tanks were studying a suggestion to use a helicopter to carry them.

CRACKA NEWS

by Fred Schaya

The report cards are coming in this week and everybody is hoping that they got good grades and no U's or o'clocks. Some kids will be delighted and some will be disappointed.

Operation paint boxes is still underway. The gym is starting to get painted. Most of the halls are already finished.

The new paint will give the school a new look.

Dear Dad: If it is a real one... it is a real one and tough a lot, or waffle a lot, the best thing to do is to stay home. If you do go to school, carry plenty of Kleenex and cover your face when you sneeze or

Dear Miles: Guessing in a family is very irresponsible. What can be done about it? Signed, Dad

Dear Dad: An irresponsible person is probably that way because he has nothing to do, no responsibilities.
Hold him responsible for something,
and he may change.
